4. Defendant, Greenberg Law Firm Professional Corporation (“Greenberg”) is a corporation engaged in the business of collecting debts in this state with its principal place of business located in Roanoke, Virginia. 9. On March 30, 2009, Defendant Greenberg filed a Warrant in Debt for Plaintiff’s alleged debt posting it at an address where Plaintiff no longer lived. See EXHIBIT B. Defendant did not use the correct address for Plaintiff so Plaintiff did not receive the Warrant in Debt.

10. In April 2010, the Defendant filed a Summons to Answer Interrogatories using the same incorrect address for Plaintiff. See EXHIBIT C. This time the person who lived at the address where the Summons was posted brought the Summons to the Plaintiff and this was the first communication about this debt provided to Plaintiff.

12. After receiving the Summons and Answer to Interrogatories on May 6, 2010, Plaintiff sent a letter, which provided her correct address, to Defendant requesting written verification of the alleged debt. See EXHIBIT D. Plaintiff did not receive anything in response to this verification request from Defendant, yet Defendant continued its collection activity when it interrogated her on June 2, 2010 at the Interrogatory hearing.
